

Math109/Music109M Questionnaire

Name _____

ID _____

1. Which of these most completely describes your background in music:

- Fluent with musical notation; proficient with an instrument or voice or in composing/arranging.
- Familiar with musical notation; some experience playing an instrument, singing, or composing/arranging.
- Fairly familiar with musical notation; some experience playing an instrument or singing.
- Slightly familiar with musical notation.

Further comment:

2. Which of these most completely describes your background in mathematics:

- Knowledge of standard material through differential and integral calculus, and possibly more advanced subjects.
- Knowledge of standard material up through differential calculus.
- Solid background in high school algebra, trigonometry, functions and graphs; prepared to take calculus.
- High school math somewhat tentative; would need to take a pre-calculus course before taking calculus.

Further comment:

3. Which of these best describes your artistic/analytic balance:

- More artistic than analytic.
- More analytic than artistic.
- About equally inclined toward the artistic and analytic.

Further comment:

4. Which of these best describes your experience with computers:

- High level of experience, including proficiency with some sophisticated programs (examples: PowerPoint, Excel, Finale, Mathematica) possibly involving interaction of the computer with external hardware other than printers, modems and hard drives; possible programming experience.
- Moderate level of experience, involving experience with at least one sophisticated program (as described above).
- Have used the computer for basic functions such as internet, e-mail, and word processing.
- Very little or no experience.

Further comment:

5. What attracted you to sign up for Math 109/Music 109M? Indicate any math/music topics that are of special interest to you.

6. Would you be interested in joining the class in attending some musical concerts/performance during the semester? If so, would you be able to arrange for your transportation? (These performances would not be required.)